Our New Cemetery.

At the large attendance at the funeral of Mr. Caldwell on Sunday, we overheard various remarks and suggestions as to the condition and management of our cemetery, which we thought the committee having it in charge might like to hear, or be benefitted by hearing, hence we shall jot down a few of them. All agreed as to the natural beauty of the grounds, but expressed the opinion that it was high time something were done in the way of improvement. Such as had not visited the place for some considerable time expressed much surprise at the rapidity with which it was being filled up, and feared that the space once deemed so ample, might not be found sufficient in the course of a few years, after all Appropos, Dr. Woods suggested that some two acres adjoining belonging to Mr. Harvey, might now be secured at a reasonable price, and that the Association ought by all means to attend to this. The additional ground would be needed, and there is a much better road -a first rate one in fact .connecting with the said additional two acres. We think this a very timely and important suggestion. The money on hand -which must by this time be a good round sum-might be well applied to this purpose. If it is not, it ought to be applied to th improvement of the grounds-this was concedes by all. Some argued that it would pay to hire a sexton at an annual salary to take charge of the grounds and make the improvements. And we notice that at Bastrop this has been done and the services of a suitable man secured at a salary of $300 a year. This will no doubt be found county progress and it will not do to conform the future to the past. Speaking of improvements, regrets were expressed that the grounds could not be reached by the waterworks so as to insure the growth of flowers and shrubber". The public we feel certain are anxious to hear from the committee having charge of the improvement of the cemetery in regard to these and various other points connected with its well-being.

When stating last week in regard to Elder Pritchett's reply to Rev. Mr. Hendon, that it was admitted in accordance with the rule that the affirmative has the right to close, we did not mean to convey the idea that no further matter from "the other side" would be accepted by us, and we so informed Mr. Hendon in a note just after the issue of our last paper. He informs us he has nothing further to offer, which ends the matter.

We wish to add, that, after admitting the first article of Elder Pritchett, we have had no further concern about the matter than to treat both sides with the strictest impartiality. Some, however, have expressed the opinion that we did wrong in permitting the introduction of the subject in our columns With all due deference, we must dissent from this opinion. We know of nothing of local interest that does not come within the legitimate sphere of a local paper. Matters of theological controversy are certainly no exception. He says while it is not so rich as that represented by Mr. F. they have not only excellent high schools and academies, but a good system of Free Schools in excellent working order. So much inferest was taken in the subject that they secured a share of the Peabody fund, by means of which the schools are kept up right within the year. First we found the new and handsome dwelling of Mr. Mead approaching comple-tion. It will make a delightful place of residence. Next we observed that Dr. Jackman has thoroughly remodeled and "made over," as it were, the old Blakemore place where he now resides, so as to add vastly to its beauty and comfort. Next to the Doctor's place we found the elegant new cottage of Mrs. Hainey. Under the heading "Advertising makes a town," the News-Graphic, Hamilton, Mo. makes the following sensible remarks, peculiarly pertinent to the condition of things at the west, but hardly a whit less so here it the South. We quote:

"We believe that no town can long live "We believe that no town can long live and prosper and grow, that does not contain live business men who advertise their goods. Show us a town that is without this class of men and we will show you a town where trade is dull, where the people complain of hard times and where enterprise is almost
